Join The Silver Circle

The Silver Circle is a group of influential business leaders (executives & entrepreneurs) who are contributing their time, money, and wisdom to catalyze Silver Lining's mission to change the global economy one small business at a time. Together, we will strategically use our power, privilege, influence, and resources to prove that business is a powerful tool for justice that can and must create an economy that works for all.

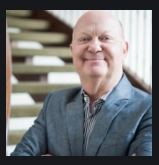

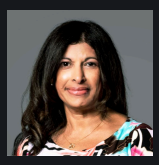

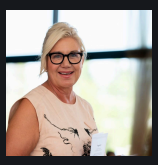

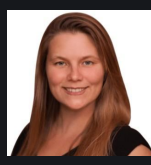

Learn
Engage with our community and Advisors to gain a new perspective on businesses' role in justice and how we can create an economy that works for all.
